Agenda

June 2021

Participants are supposed to prepare a) two key issues related to the topic to be addressed as a matter of urgency and with b) one concrete proposal for “action” to be implemented. All participants will be invited to present their positions in maximum 10 minutes throughout working sessions on June 7th and 8th.

Today is the first day of a two-day long workshop “Countering the Far-Right: Regional and Local Approaches for Action”. Organized by the Institute for Democratic Engagement Southeast Europe (IDESE), and the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Dialogue Southeast Europe (FES SOE). Participants of the workshop were welcomed by Ralf Melzer and the Major of the City of Cres Marin Gregorović. The welcoming word was followed by Michael Jennewein’s presentation of the Study “Understanding Right-Wing Populism and What do about it” by FES, moderated by Vedran Džihic and Gazela Pudar Draško. Today’s program continues with Balša Lubarda, Predrag Petrović, Arlinda Rrustemi, Florian Bieber, and Jelena Đureinović’s inputs on the main features and directions of the far-right activities in SEE.
